Welcome to Limb by Limb Massage Therapy by Aimee Swanson. In order to best serve you and keep you informed, here are my policies for service below.

- If at any point during the massage, you feel uncomfortable or you just want the massage to stop, please communicate. We will end the session with no questions asked. Your comfort is always first and foremost.

- At the same time, if I feel uncomfortable at any time during the session I reserve the right to also end the session. I am a legitimate Licensed Massage Therapist in the state of Illinois and I stand by my education and ethics.

- Please note our payment and cancellation policy. During the scheduling of your first appointment, I will require a credit card that I will hold on file. Your credit card will only be used if in the event of a cancellation within a 24 hour window, or a no show. Fees associated are 75% charge for cancellation within 24 hour window, and 100% for a no show. All other payments will be taken at the time of service. Payments taken are Venmo, Zelle, PayPal, and cash. All cash payments will receive a 10% discount.

- New policies will be added at any point as needed.
